

24 Of Our Favorite Events In Los Angeles This Week

Published September 15, 2014

There are a number of great [air-conditioned!] events happening in L.A. this week. Here are 24 of them for you to choose from. Read on for all the details. We'll be back on Thursday to help you plan the weekend.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 17

FILM: The Mistake Room presents a two-night screening program of the film works of artist Gordon Matta-Clark (1943-1978). The program, Cities on Screens, focuses on the artist's relationship to the city, architecture and space, reflecting on the changing nature of L.A., particularly DTLA. The films screen at 7-9:30 pm on Wednesday and Thursday, with different films shown each night. Free.
